Last summer I had company, — a man and his wife I he man's hands and face had dry, scaly sores on them, and his head was covered, his har being full of white scales. His wife said, "Some mort ings she would find a tablespoonful in the bed "I said him, "U by don't you cure yourself". He said, "I would give a hundred dollars to be cured. I have paid out a lot of money, but don't get cured. I told him, "I would cure him for sees than that," and told him to get Curteuras remedies. I did not see him for some time after, and then he fairly shouled "I am cured. Curteuras has done it."
